Keynote Speaker:

"Dr. Stacey" Reicherzer

Responding to Our Legacies of Otherness and Oppression in Becoming Better Counselors

Stacey Reicherzer, PhD, LPC, or "Dr. Stacey" as she is professionally known, is a transgender woman whose clinical and research background have focused on the lives and experiences of LGBT persons, with particular emphasis on those from communities of color. Her most recent study examined resiliency in the lives of transsexual Mexican women in their navigation of racism, homo-hatred, and transphobia. Dr. Stacey has recently premiered the new "Ask Dr. Stacey" series on YouTube to promote understanding about transgender issues, sex and sexuality, and relationship challenges that she commonly encounters in her work.
